invites Y O U
to a Potluck Supper and Slide Show

When: Thursday, September 22, 6:30 pm

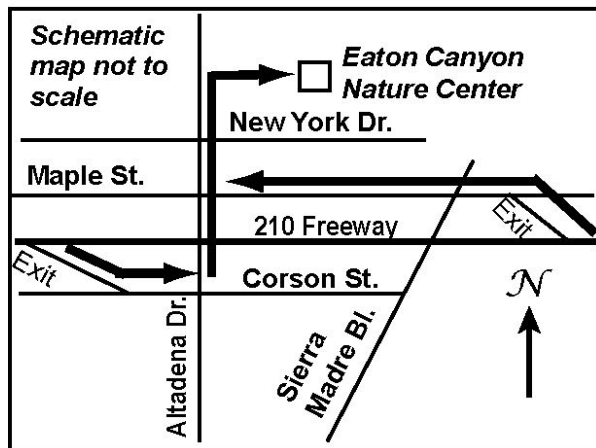

Where: Eaton Canyon Nature Center

Who: Everyone is welcome, members and non-members

Why: Come and see what we are all about. Thrill to beautiful pictures of native plants.

Pot Luck Supper Bring your favorite dish to share.
Bring your own utensils.

Photographic show and tell Here is an opportunity for each of those present to show their favorite native-plant-related photographs. Select one to twelve photos that you would like to share. Send the digital image files to Cliff McLean at cliff.mclean@att.net by Sunday, September 18, for incorporation into a slide show. If you prefer, you can create your own PowerPoint or OpenOffice slides and send them. If you can, please identify the plants in each photograph with common names and/or botanical names, or the group can help identify them.
